"The Best of the Seventies"

The "Best of the Seventies" edition of the Clintonia would like to give special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Hettinger, Spray Photography and McKinley Photography, for their help in producing quality pictures for our yearbook. This year's book was produced as a classroom activity with academic credit given to students for working on the book. The Clintonia is a member of Eastern Illinois School Press Association, Northern Illinois School Press Association, National Scholastic Press Association, and Evansville University Press Association.

To a Very Special Lady

The Clintonia Staff and the Senior Class of Clinton Community High School are honored to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Lois Hieronymus. Mrs. Hieronymus, as a Home Economics teacher, has taught Foods I, Meal Planning, Child Care, Child Development, Consumer Education, and Family Living to any student wishing to better understand the domestic world. Before teaching, Mrs. "H" attended Illinois State University for her B.S. and received her M.S. from Millikin University. This is her 21st year at C.C.H.S. Whoever has been lucky enough to have had Mrs. Hieronymus as a teacher knows of a lasting bond formed between her and her students. It is a bond of friendship and enjoyment which is radiated by this very deserving woman.

To our own Mrs. "H" we dedicate this book for the memories you have given C.C.H.S.

HOME COMING

Friday the 13th is marked as that fateful day when only bad things are supposed to happen. That theory was proven wrong on Homecoming Day, however, when the infamous members of the class of '79 became the winners for the fourth year in the float competition.

Second place was captured by the Freshman class with the slogan, "Even Mighty Mouse Can't Tackle The Mighty Maroons." To the Sophomore class with a slogan proclaiming, "Sizzle the Saints," went the third place ribbon. The parade was led by the Clinton Police, followed by the high school M-squad and marching band. Other groups represented were National Honor Society, Cross Country, Football squads, Maroon cheerleaders, and Junior High cheerleaders.

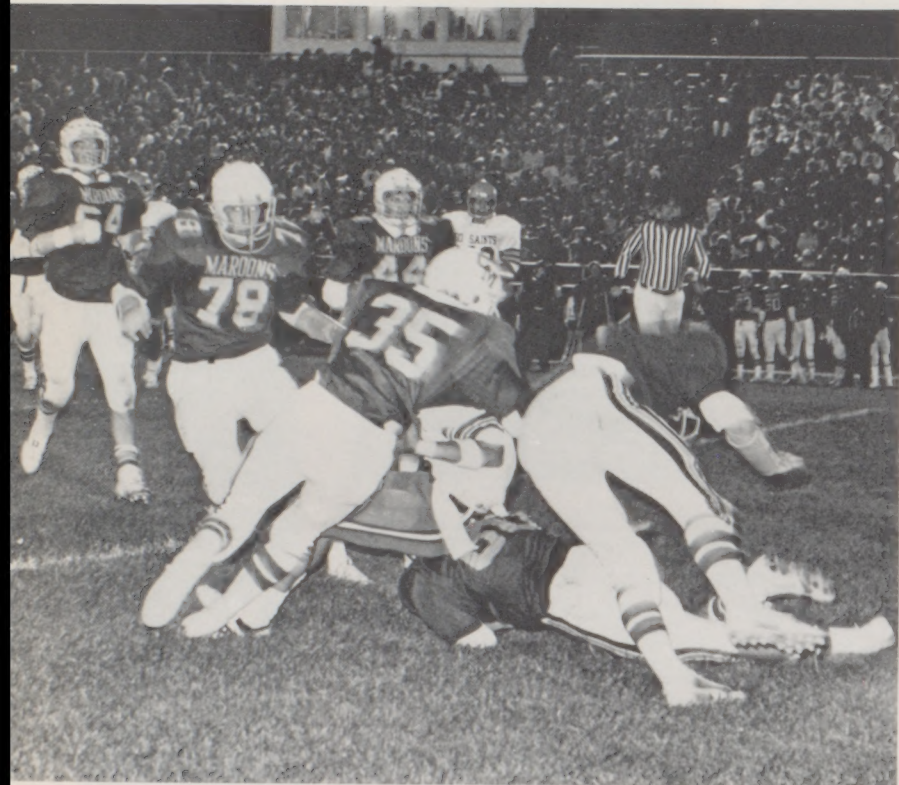

Other Homecoming activities included the annual Junior-Senior Egg Fight held at the Water Works Park. Just as the juniors were beating the seniors, the Clinton Police Department came and ended it with an early finish. On the same evening, Clinton High School Clubs and Groups revived the traditional windowpainting. The National Honor Society won with the Slogan, "Reach for the Stars," with the seniors placing second.

1978-1979!

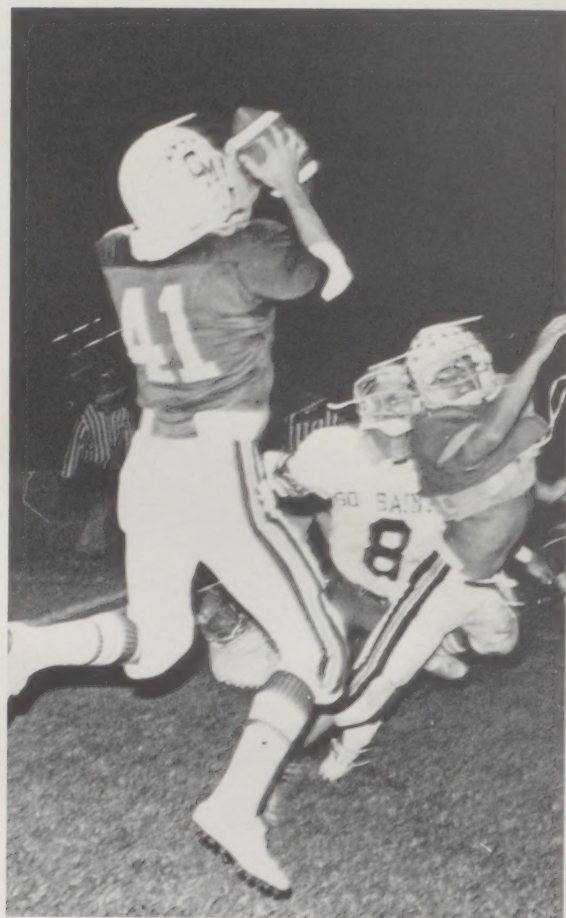

PARADE

Saints Devil Clinton 30-22

Central Catholic stunned Clinton with a quick strike in the first quarter making the score, 7-0. The Maroons roared right back, driving 66 yards in twelve plays. Green hit Jim Sparrow on a pass. Brett Miller added the extra point making the score, 8-7. Clinton's lead was sweet and very short lived.

The Clinton offense rolled up 358 total yards, but the defense gave up 341 yards. Clinton also had more first downs, but Central Catholic still won, 30-22.

Foreign Exchange Students Express Their Ideas

Katsuko Uesugi is a long way from her home in Nara, Japan, but in the true spirit of Home-coming, her new friends at Clinton High School have made her feel welcome and at home. "I miss my friends and my Mom in Japan, but I have new friends here, and I like Clinton very much."

By January our heavy winter snowfalls introduced her to a season she had only experienced mildly before. "In Nara we have about two inches of snow about ten days of each year. If we have snow one day in Japan, the next day it is gone. I have enjoyed sledding (although I had a lot of bruises from it at first) and ice skating on real ice."

We will miss Katsuko when she returns to her home. She will take with her a better understanding of the English language and the American people, but, even more importantly, she leaves with us the memory of a warm and affectionate girl whom we all loved.

They're Learning A Lot!

For Eric Brito life in Clinton is surely a change from that in his hometown of Caracas, Venezuela. "For me, Clinton was a little town, because I came from a city of 3,000,000 people. In a city like that, everything happens, and nobody sees you for a long time."

While staying with the Robert Case family, he has made friends here at Clinton High School and has learned many things about America. "I never saw snow in my life, but I didn't expect to see that much like I saw in Clinton!"

Like his American "family" we will miss Eric greatly when he leaves. He has made impressions on our lives that will long be remembered.

September Memories

On October 14th, the Student Council sponsored the annual Homecoming dance. This year the dance was called AUTUMN MIST. Spirit chains hung from the ceiling, and Autumn colors were everywhere. This gave the commons a warm, romantic feeling. Couples danced to the band, SLIP STREAM, which played from 8p.m.-11p.m. During the dance, if you and your date wanted a lasting memory, Bob McKinley was taking pictures on stage.

Autumn

Autumn Mist

Everything seemed to know
it was Homecoming
Everywhere was the feeling of Autumn Mist!

Couples and groups strolling in the whispering wind, following, joining the awaiting music
and excitement.

A special dance . . .
the first for some
the last for others
Joyful anticipation for all.

Mist

Oh, memories
of past Homecoming and Alumni;
of fallen leaves and orange skies;
of loyalty to the school;
and our hearts growing wise;
Oh, memories . . .
of Autumn Mist.

Anticipation...

The court for the future Homecoming Queen is shown here anxiously awaiting to go before its school. Each girl had to pick a question and answer it to the best of her ability.

At Last!!!

Sheila Parker's first response after discovering that she was chosen to reign as CCHS 1978-79 Homecoming Queen was, "Oh, no!. What do I do now?" Amid tears and screams of excitement from the crowd, Sheila was crowned during half-time by Toni Thompson, the 77-78 Homecoming Queen. Sheila was escorted to the game on Friday, October 13, by Joe Disney, a close friend and co-worker of Sheila's at Clinton's Dairy Queen.

For the dance Saturday, October 14, Sheila was escorted by Alan Morris. She was congratulated by a member of the band, Slip Stream, and presented with a gift by Brett Miller, Student Council President. After accepting the gift, Sheila took the opportunity to thank everyone who supported her saying, "Now is when you realize who your friends really are." Afterwards, Sheila and her escort danced to "Color My World" while other students looked on.

High Hopes— High Dreams

After a month of anxiety, fourteen students were inducted into the Charles Evans Chapter of the National Honor Society. Out of thirty possibilities, only the fourteen were chosen on November 21, 1978.

Illinois State Representative, Sam Vinson, was a surprise guest speaker who spoke on his memories of CCHS and the honor of becoming a member. Old and new members alike were given the rest of the afternoon off and dinner at Guzzardo's.

Can They Make It? You Bet!

On November 17 & 18, twelve CCHS couples participated in a 24-hour Muscular Dystrophy Dance-a-Thon. Total pledges came to $2,135.00, and several prizes were rewarded. First prize for top individual pledge was a $25.00 bond, while the top couple pledges received chicken dinners, proof sets, and 10 gallons of free gas.

Second place couples were awarded $10.00 gift certificates, albums, a planter, and 10 free car washes. Food donations were from the Pizza Hut, Kentucky Fried Chicken, IGA, Kroger, and Eisner.

Let It Snow

Let Us

Dance

Let Us Boogie

Under boughs of green pine and large red bows, couples enjoyed the music of Eargasm. Student Council sponsored the annual dance on December 9, 1978 with each representative donating cookies and refreshments for the tired couples. If you wanted a longer rest, Bob McKinley was posing couples on big Christmas presents and taking their pictures.

This year the Thespian society put on "An Evening of One Acts" under the direction of Chris Hartsock, Dee Armstrong, and Neal Malone. They were presented on Friday, November 10th, and Saturday, November 11th, at 7:30 p.m. As a new idea, the play was held in the commons as a "theatre in the round." During the play, popcorn and cokes were furnished to the delighted audience.

Musical Success

On April 27th, 28th, and 29th talented high school students presented the popular musical, "South Pacific." Sporting a cast of eighty-three, the play was extremely successful and received many ovations.

"Bali Ha' I . . . mean 'I am your special island' . . . mean 'Here I am.' You listen . . . you hear island call to you."

“April Showers”

On April 7, 1979 the National Honor Society sponsored a dance as a money making project. The commons was decorated with umbrellas and tissue paper flowers to follow the theme, “April Showers.” Cypress and the Miami Horns played a variety of music for the attending couples, and free refreshments were donated by N.H.S. members.

Nights In White Satin

Another year goes passing by Another promise here
 To some this brings a joyous smile
 To others brings a tear
 For 4 years you have tread a path
 From dawn to setting sun
 But now the path gets deeper
 And the climb has just begun
 We're very glad to know you
 We'll miss you when your gone
 And to the class of 79
 We dedicate our Prom.
 —The Juniors

This year's jr.-sr. prom was held on May 5 in the library with decorations following the theme of Nights in White Satin. Nathan Fields and Peggy Gregory were elected prom king and queen. After prom was held in the commons and in the gym with volleyball, basketball, and ping-pong games going on.

Queen Candidates: Kay Belangee, Laurie Bryant, Peggy Gregory, Wendy Jones.
 King Candidates: Lee Luckey, Bart Miller, Nathan Fields, Rick Welton.

Sr. Class Night Best Ever

On May 1st the Senior Class put on a highly successful show to a full audience in the auditorium. Under the guidance of the M.C., Nathan Fields, various acts included the traditional song, "On the First Day of My Senior Year," a Hee-Haw parody, and a senior boys' beauty contest with Tom Groves winning the "Miss Cutey Pie Award."

The Finale for the Class of '79

The processional . . .

The awarding of the diploma highlights the end of four years.

Laurie Bryant captures the memories in song.

After the ceremony come feelings of . . .

melancholy . . .

and loss . . .

mixed with hope and anticipation for the future.

HE TOUCHED US!

He touched us
With a smile
Which shone his inner self,
With a tenderness
Which warmed the heart
And the coldest day.

He touched us
With a hand so gentle
That we knew he loved
The life he lived
With the fullness
Of God.

He touched us
With a presence
So rare
No other can fill
The void he has left.
But at least he touched us.

Maroons Return to Cornbelt Conference

In their return to the Cornbelt Conference, the Maroons fought their way down the gridiron to a season record of 3 wins-4 losses, and an overall record of 3-6.

The high point of the season centered on the offensive team with Tim Green handling the passing game and Brett Miller leading the rush for yardage. Congratulations to the following boys: Jim Sparrow, Brett Miller, Bart Miller, and Marty DeJaynes for making the All-Conference Team.

The 1978-79 golf season was a disappointment for Coach Gramkow and the team with a 2-11 win/loss record. Rodney Woolridge in his first year on the team highlighted the season with consistent scoring. With this as a rebuilding year, their next season shows the potential for much improvement.

Cross-country running is an "Individual" sport, but scoring is done on a team basis.

The runners work on short distance running for speed as well as long distance for endurance. Team workouts involve running intervals or running 9-10 hours a day.

This season our cross-country team participated in meets with 16 schools. Five of these schools were in the Corn Belt Conference. The CHS teams won only three of these meets. The season was disappointing, but several runners did show improvement over their previous best times.

"Set it up!" "I got it!" "Spike!" These and other calls of encouragement echo through the gymnasium in Clinton High School's fast-paced volleyball games.

Connie Mahoney coached the girls to a great season. In a 19-21 to 23-21 20-18 victory over Eureka the girls showed skills that proved promising for next year's team.

Gallons of Sweat Lead to Success for Wrestlers

At the beginning of the season, it was hard for CHS wrestlers to turn down calories in order to meet their weight limitations. Every day the wrestlers worked out very hard since they wanted to be successful. Wrestling requires a good deal of self-sacrifice and self-discipline.

Kamal Shalabi, Mike Grimes, and Bart Miller represented CHS in Sectionals at U-High. Bart was the only one that placed.

The following boys did an outstanding job: John Werts, Jim Harrold, Dennis Reynolds and Todd Thomas.

Brett Miller was injured before the season, but he supported each and every wrestler and served as honorary captain of the team.

Nannette Fenner, Robin Reed, Paige Wagner, Lori Suggs, Regina Issac, Denise Torbert, Kim Lonbom, Laurie Crouse, Treasa Torbert, Kelly Koget, Debbi Long, Katy Scott, Coach Kiick, Coach Austin.

The J.V. girls had a good season this year with a record 15-3. Kelly Koget lead the season with a total of 147 points. Following behind her was Paige Wagner with 77 points. Coach Kiick did a good job of training the girls to use their talents.

The Varsity team won the Cornbelt Conference game against Central Catholic with a final score of 94-37. The top three scorers of the season were: Sas Spencer, 746 points; Wendy Jones, 339; Cheryl Sturgeon, 204. Sas also had the most rebounds and assists. It was Wendy's first year playing, and she helped the team a great deal especially with her height. Coach Austin is very pleased with the girls and hopes they'll go further with their talent. The overall record was 19-4.

The girls' softball team did great this year with the help and support of Coach Austin. The girls had a final record of 5 wins, 9 losses. The team showed improvement throughout the season, and Coach Austin feels that next year will bring the promise of many wins since the team is comprised of many underclassmen.

Todd and Merri prepare to sell advertising for the Excalibur.

The school year 1978-79 was a real experience for the journalism class and their new sponsor, Mrs. Nancy Mareing. The students did all the writing, advertising, and layout themselves, using the DeWitt County Observer, and the Daily Journal and Public for paste-up. It was rough going and the staff members didn't put out as many issues as they would have liked to. Gathering ads, getting interviews, and sponsoring a Gong Show were only some of the activities that went on. Due to lack of funds, no contests were entered this year and therefore some of the incentive was missing. In all, we accomplished what we set out to do—produce a newspaper—and we gave it our best.

Student Council

The Student Council of C.C.H.S. started their activities this year with the Homecoming Dance in October, 1978. Along with Homecoming, they sponsored the Christmas Dance, Valentine's Dance, the Dance-A-Thon for MDA, and the Disco Galactica. They were also involved in other activities: exchanges with schools in other towns; a district workshop for other Student Councils; an assembly with the hypnotist, Dr. Morton A. Ford, and the supporting of a pizza eating contest.

One of the greatest honors a high school student can receive is election to the National Honor Society. According to the national office, a student must have at least a "B" average in order to be eligible. In the Charles Evans chapter at C.C.H.S., a student may first become eligible during the second semester of his/her junior year. Eligibility for induction is based on scholarship, character, leadership, and service. After totaling the service points of all students scholastically eligible, each teacher rates those students whom he knows as to character and leadership on a scale of 1-10. After totaling and averaging the points of all four categories, those students whose points meet the predetermined quotient are inducted into National Honor Society.

The after effects of FHA initiation.

To start the year off, the members held a weiner roast to initiate the new members. Some of the activities were: Sitting in a tub of ice cold water, getting a pie thrown in your face, jumping barefoot on balloons while blindfolded and having spinach shoved down your throat. Everyone had a good time, considering . . . Also, early in the school year, FHA sold Christmas candles. The sales were a great success. Mrs. Hieronymus is the sponsor for FHA.

Aren't FHA meetings fun, De?

Maroon Squad

The CCHS 'M' Squad, under the direction of Mrs. Marjorie Devore, has kept very busy this year. They performed during half-time for our football and basketball games. Try-outs were held in April, '78 so the winners could learn routines for summer camps. Eight girls attended the N.C.A. Superstar Camp in Rockford, Illinois, receiving 33 individual ribbons, 8 group ribbons, and a first place trophy for "Disco Inferns." The girls also brought home the spirit stick given to them by the N.C.A. staff. Five other girls participated in the half-time U.S.A. camp. The girls won two first place group ribbons. Nancy Lappin won a first place ribbon in a prop routine, and Louanne Gregory received a trophy for being selected as "Miss Half-time, U.S.A."

When you watch these girls perform, you know they're talented!

Building Trades House Builds Sense of Pride

Clinton High School's first experience with a building trades house has proved to be both successful and rewarding. Pete Vanderkloot, developer of the program and supervisor of student construction, admits it was "one heck of a lot of work," but feels the students developed a sense of pride and accomplishment at what they were able to do. Working with the building trades class were the interior decorating, landscaping, and wiring classes. With such student involvement and support from local contractors, this innovation has been a benefit to the educational program at C.H.S.
